

Regin Group appoints Irma Nisu as new Group CFO

Regin Group strengthens its executive management team and appoints Irma Nisu as the new Group Chief Financial Officer.

Irma Nisu most recently served as Senior Vice President of Finance at Cint, a publicly listed company within market research technology. Prior to Cint, she held key roles as Head of Group Reporting and Head of Finance at Dustin Group and Vitamin Well. Irma Nisu began her career at Ernst & Young as a certified public accountant and holds a master's degree in business administration.

“We are delighted to welcome Irma Nisu to Regin Group. With her extensive experience in financial management and reporting, combined with a results-driven mindset, we are confident that Irma Nisu will be an invaluable asset to Regin Group as we continue our growth journey”, says Fredrik Wiking, CEO and President of Regin Group.

As Group CFO, Irma Nisu will lead the group finance team, improve risk management, strengthen the governance and contribute to the strategic development of the group. Additionally, Irma Nisu will be part of the Group Management team.

“Regin Group’s strong commitment to sustainability aligns perfectly with my own values. I look forward to joining the team and using my experience in finance, M&A, and strategic transformation to contribute to the company’s continued success”, says Irma Nisu.

Irma Nisu will start her new position on the 18th of November 2024.
